Alumni Venture Fund Application Instructions 2021-2022

Program Overview

The Alumni Venture Fund (AVF) provides small grant opportunities for MEPI alumni to collaboratively utilize the leadership skills they developed through their various MEPI program experiences. This small grant program supports alumni to work together on innovative solutions to economic and/or community needs. The small grants provide seed funding for innovative ideas to develop new partnerships, foster sustainable collaboration in priority areas, and expand the impact of alumni to address needs within their communities. The Alumni Venture Fund part of the MEPI Alumni Connection, a program of the U.S.- Middle East Partnership Initiative (MEPI) and implemented by IREX.

Application Evaluation

All completed applications received by December 30,2021 , will be evaluated competitively against the technical eligibility and selection criteria by a selection committee.

IREX reserves the right to verify all of the information included in the application. In the event that there is a discrepancy, or information is found to be false, the application will immediately be declared invalid and the applicant ineligible. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

All proposed projects selected for award must be reviewed and cleared by the U.S. Embassy to the proposed country of the project, prior to final selection.

Reporting Requirements

All Alumni Venture Fund awardees will be required to submit a Final Narrative Report to IREX following the completion of the project and no later than July 31, 2022. More information about reporting requirements will be included in the Terms and Conditions document signed by awardees.

Financial Provisions:

Grant award minimum: $5,000

Grant award maximum: $10,000

Disbursement of Funds

Awardees will receive their grant funds as a wire to the personal bank account provided to IREX by the Team Lead. Accordingly, these awardees will be asked to supply bank information in a Wire Transfer Bank Information Form; awardees must also provide bank information for any intermediary bank that may be necessary to complete the transfer of grant funds from the United States to the MENA region.

Please note: Some banks may charge a fee for the transfer of funds to the awardees account. Awardees should contact their bank to determine if there will be a fee. Awardees will need to budget for any bank fees in the project budget. Some banks may also hold funds for a short while after they are received, and before they are disbursed to the grantee. Awardees should anticipate this kind of possible delay and plan for it in their project calendar.*

Tips for Creating Your Budget

- ◆ Start planning your budget as soon as you begin thinking of the activities you want to implement. The first step is to think about each activity that you will be carrying out and make a list of each expense you anticipate will be associated with each activity. The goal is to think about everything—big and small—that you will need to purchase in order to implement your project successfully.
- ◆ To accurately estimate prices in your budget, identify stores or vendors from which you can purchase the items that you require. Possible resources for getting price estimates include local shops, the internet, your Team, other MEPI alumni who may have done a similar project before, your professional colleagues, etc.

Applications are free of charge and may be duplicated.

- ◆ Please remember to account for any estimated bank fees in your project budget (please refer to Financial Provisions). The Team Lead must be able to receive funds to her/his bank account.

Submission Guidelines

- ◆ Applications must be received on or before the due date. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.
- ◆ All applications must be submitted along with a proposed budget, project timeline, CVs of the Team, Risk Assessment and Mitigation Plan, and agenda for workshops/conferences (if applicable).
- ◆ Letters of support from potential project partners are encouraged but not required. Please note that MEPI / State Department staff cannot provide letters for this purpose.
- ◆ Please be sure to keep a copy of your completed application.

Only one application for any individual alumnus/alumna Team Leader will be considered per application round. Individual alumni may be listed on other applications as a Team Member or other collaborator during the same application round.

If Selected:

International Exchange Alumni – U.S. Department of State

All DOS alumni are encouraged to register and use the International Exchange Alumni Website, at <https://alumni.state.gov>. This site allows alumni to stay in contact with one another through networking and the sharing of useful information about professional opportunities. International Exchange Alumni may assist applicants for the Alumni Venture Fund by providing resources for project development and further funding; access to other alumni to help to formulate a project idea, or forums for disseminating information about a project to other alumni.
