Mahjoub Eddoua, Empowering Disabled People

Leaders for Democracy (LDF) 2016

From the Laayoune region near the Atlantic Ocean in The Moroccan Kingdom, Mahjoub Eddoua, a master's degree in Business Intelligence Graduate salute his fellow MEPI Alumni. He is an expert in media and project management and an active member in the ARIPH Association for integrating people with disabilities and fighting stigma around them. Mahjoub is proud of being part of this movement where he has designed and led hundreds of initiatives. He is currently working on the "Media Student " to train his beneficiaries on media production. As a serial awardee and a prominent leader, he hopes to get the MEPI Alumni of the Year to crown his efforts and harness his energy to carry them out. He encourages his fellow MEPI Alumni to vote for him with total appreciation and love.
