GLOBAL SOLUTIONS SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE

UNLOCK YOUR COMMUNITIES' POTENTIAL FOR SUSTAINABLE HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM

The Global Solutions Sustainability Challenge is a virtual exchange initiative that pairs colleges from the United States and Jordan to work together on a collaborative international team to compete with their peers by creating innovative solutions to pressing global problems affecting their local communities.

The 10-week sustainability challenge

Virtual fair*

Finalists invited to an in-person summit in Washington, DC winter 2018/2019*

The challenge uses virtual exchange to improve global citizenship and problem-solving skills among hospitality and business students in postsecondary colleges in the US and Jordan. By exposing students to real-world applications in their subject areas and equipping faculty with skills in teaching global competence through project-based learning, we can increase career readiness.

It's not about winning or losing. This challenge provides you with the skills needed for the real world!"

- College Student, Amman, Jordan

To participate in the Global Solutions Challenge, facilitators must apply on behalf of their students and schools. The selected facilitators will:

- Form and lead a gender-balance team from their college of at least eight students;
- Participate in professional development training;
- Partner effectively with their facilitator co-lead in Jordan
- Lead the team's virtual and in-person instruction and collaboration;
- Engage in ongoing communications and support with IREX, including anecdotes and photographs;
- Motivate and ensure the team's completion of survey evaluation data and the challenge.

The participating team will:

- Work with their counterparts in Jordan over the course of the program through a virtual platform to collaboratively design and implement innovative solutions to the team's selected global challenge;
- Ensure their ideas are innovative, their own, and meet academic integrity standards;
- Submit a business plan of their solution and a video no longer than five-minutes to creatively showcase their solution and be considered as a finalist;
- If selected as a semifinalist, attend the Global Solutions summit in Washington, DC.
