USAID

USAID is an independent federal government agency that receives overall foreign policy guidance from the Secretary of State. The agency works to support long-term and sustainable economic growth and advancing US foreign policy objectives by supporting:

- Economic growth and agricultural development
- Global health and democracy
- Conflict prevention and developmental relief

USAID provides assistance in four regions of the world:
- Sub-Saharan Africa
- Asia and the Near East
- Latin America and the Caribbean
- Europe and Eurasia

With headquarters in Washington, DC, USAID’s strength is its field offices around the world. They work in close partnership with private voluntary organizations, indigenous organizations, universities, American businesses, international agencies, other governments, and other US government agencies. USAID has working relationships with more than 3,500 American companies and over 300 US-based private voluntary organizations.

IREX

IREX (the International Research & Exchanges Board) is the premier US nonprofit organization specializing in higher education, independent media, Internet development, and civil society programs in the United States, Europe, Eurasia, the Near East, and Asia.

Since its founding in 1968, IREX has supported over 15,000 students, scholars, policymakers, business leaders, journalists, and other professionals. IREX serves as a major resource for universities, governments, and the corporate sector in understanding international political, social, economic, and business developments.

The IREX Mission
- Foster democracy in transitioning societies
- Strengthen and help internationalize educational, nongovernmental, and media organizations
- Support the highest-quality research in the social sciences and humanities
- Identify and train the next generation of leaders by working together with universities, nongovernmental organizations, foundations, governments, and corporations
