Reciprocal Exchange Application Guidelines

About the Reciprocal Exchange

The Mandela Washington Fellowship for Young African Leaders – the flagship program of the U.S. government’s Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) – was created in 2014 to invest in the next generation of African leaders. The Reciprocal Exchange Component provides Americans with the opportunity to travel to Africa to build upon strategic partnerships and professional connections developed during the Mandela Washington Fellowship in the United States. The Reciprocal Exchange Component provides funds for the American professionals to travel to sub-Saharan African countries to continue collaborative work with Mandela Washington Fellows on the continent. American professionals may include those met during the Mandela Washington Fellowship through site visits, networking, the Summit, Professional Development Experiences or other activities. Through these projects, Americans and young African leaders form lasting partnerships, expand markets and networks, and increase mutual understanding between the United States and countries in sub-Saharan Africa.

Reciprocal Exchange Award Timeline

- Application Deadline: November 9, 2017
- Grant Award Recipients Announced: early January 2018
- Grant Funds Disbursed: late January 2018
- Grant Period: February – July 2018

Financial Provisions of the Award

Maximum Grant Award: $5,000

Disbursement of Funds: Up to $5,000 per award will be provided to the American professionals to travel to Sub-Saharan Africa and to support approved program-related costs. Funds will not be disbursed to Mandela Washington Fellows. Award funds are disbursed in two installments, contingent upon required deliverables.

Please note: All other costs associated with the exchange that exceed the $5,000 limit will not be covered in this award. Other costs must be co-funded by Fellows and the American professionals.
Eligibility Requirements

American professionals participating in the Reciprocal Exchange must be U.S. citizens currently living in the United States and must not have previously received a Reciprocal Exchange award.

Fellows must be considered alumni of the Fellowship by the Department of State and must not have previously received a Reciprocal Exchange award.

Selection Criteria

Eligible applications will be reviewed using the following selection criteria:

- Demonstrate impact on the Fellow’s home institution, community, and/or country;
- Demonstrate impact on the American professional’s home organization and community;
- Demonstrate joint engagement between the Fellow and American professional in project design and implementation;
- Articulate clearly the need for travel by the American professional to support the project; and
- Provide measurable goals and clearly specify project activities during travel.

All completed applications received by 11:59 pm EST, Thursday, November 9, 2017, will be evaluated competitively against the eligibility requirements and selection criteria.

IREX reserves the right to verify all the information included in the application. In the event that there is a discrepancy, or information is found to be false, the application will be declared invalid and the applicant ineligible. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Reporting Requirements

All Reciprocal Exchange Awardees and Fellows will be required to submit a final report to IREX following the completion of their activity. More information about reporting requirements will be included in the Terms and Conditions documents signed by Awardees and Fellows.
